INVESTIGATIONS

10-2678] Interfering With Child Custody (Felony)/Contributing to Delinquency of Minor/Obstructing an Officer

Tomah Officers received information that a 16-year-old juvenile had run away from his residence in the State of California and was believed to be traveling by Grey Hound to an address in Monroe County, WI. The Grey Hound Bus Depot was checked several times for the juvenile as it was believed the juvenile would be arriving in Tomah. Two days after the Tomah Police Department received this information Tomah Officers observed a vehicle that matched a vehicle from a residence in Monroe County where this juvenile was supposed to be going. The vehicle was stopped and the juvenile was located in the backseat. The adult female was not cooperative with Law Enforcement and was actually aiding the juvenile by taking him to the adult female's residence. The adult female had previously been contacted by the Monroe County Sheriff's Department and instructed to report the location of the juvenile as soon as the adult female knew. The adult female had driven past the Tomah Police Department while she was enroute to her residence, making it clear that she wasn't interested in following the required instructions from Law Enforcement and in fact was interfering with a child custody matter. The adult female was taken to Jail.

[10-2698] Disorderly Conduct (Domestic Related)

Tomah Officers were dispatched to the 300 block of E. Juneau St. for a reported disturbance. Officers proceeded to the area of the call and observed two male subjects walking on the sidewalk. The male subjects observed the marked Police vehicle and one of them began to run. The Officer contacted the male subject that remained at the location and began to investigate the altercation. Tomah Officers were able to track down the subject that fled and he was taken into custody. The male subject that fled was issued a citation for Underage Consumption of Alcohol and was released. The male subject that remained on scene was taken into custody for his involvement in the original disturbance.

[10-2699] Substantial Battery (Felony)/Disorderly Conduct

Tomah Officers were dispatched to The Hearty Platter for a report that a male subject was beating a female subject. Officers arrived and were informed that the male subject had slammed the female's face into a table and had also dragged her from the restaurant. The vehicle was located east of Tomah on State Highway 21. The victim suffered a broken tooth from having her head slammed into the table. The victim wasn't cooperative with Law Enforcement. Ultimately the male subject was taken into custody for Disorderly Conduct (Domestic related) and transported to the Monroe County Jail. The male subject will have a charge of Substantial Battery referred to the District Attorney's Office.

[10-2702] Violation of Closing Hours

A Tomah Officer observed several subjects inside The Bank Bar after closing hours. The Officer entered the bar and observed approximately ten subjects standing at the bar with drinks in front of them. The bar tender observed the Officer and began taking the drinks and instructing the patrons that they needed to leave. The Officer told the Patrons that they needed to leave and they all slowly departed the bar. The Officer walked around the bar and observed a male subject passed out on the floor behind the bar. The bar tender indicated the male subject that was passed out was her boy friend. The Tomah Officer summonsed additional assistance to check on the welfare of the male subject that was lying on the floor behind the bar. The Tomah Officers were able to verify that the male subject was okay and he was escorted off the premises. The bar tender was issued a citation and released.

[10-2705] OMVWI-2nd Offense

Tomah Officers were dispatched to the area of Kwik Trip-west and the Wal-Mart Supercenter for a report of a possibly intoxicated driver. Additional information was that a vehicle operator was observed buying alcohol and then seen trying to leave the area and ran into a snow bank. Officers subsequently located the vehicle in the Wal-Mart Super Center parking lot. The vehicle operator submitted to Standardized Field Sobriety Testing (SFST) and also submitted to a Preliminary Breath Test (PBT) and the result of that test was .169BAC, which confirmed the Officers suspicion that the operator was impaired with alcohol. The operator was taken into custody for Operating a Motor Vehicle While Intoxicated – 2nd offense. The operator was processed at the Tomah Police Department and ultimately released to his father. A passenger in the vehicle was issued a citation for Open Intoxicant as a Passenger and Adult Sell/Serve/Disperse Alcohol to an Intoxicated Subject.

[10-2706] Battery to Police Officer (Felony)/Disorderly Conduct/Resisting Arrest/Mistreatment of Animal

Tomah Officers were dispatched to the 500 block of Benton St. for a reported disturbance. Upon arrival Officers were allowed into the residence and began to speak with a male and female subject. The male subject was immediately belligerent and stated he wanted to go to jail. The male subject attempted to leave, after being instructed not to, and Officers attempted to prevent him from leaving. The male subject turned around and punched an Officer in the face. The male subject continued to resist arrest and was ultimately controlled with the use of an Electronic Control Device. While Officers were dealing with the combative male, the female subject began to become belligerent. The female subject was told she was under arrest and she turned around and kicked a dog in the ribs as she was being taken into custody. Both subjects were transported to the Monroe County Jail.

[10-2707] Attempted Robbery (Felony)

Tomah Officers were dispatched to the 1500 block of Superior Ave. for a suspicious activity call. Additional information was provided that described two male subjects (Possibly juveniles) that left the area and were involved with the suspicious activity. Tomah Officers were able to determine that the two male juveniles had stopped the victim, an adult male, and asked him how much money he had. The victim told the two juveniles and they then told the victim to follow them into the alley where they stated they were going to beat him up and take his money. The victim told the two juveniles that he was calling the Police and the two juveniles called him a "Snitch" and departed the area. The two juveniles admitted to speaking with the victim and asking him how much money he had but didn't admit to trying to rob the victim. The Tomah Police Department established probable cause and arrested the two juveniles for Attempted Robbery. The two juveniles were ultimately released to their respective parent. The two juveniles will be referred to the Monroe County Department of Human Services for Attempted Robbery.

[10-2709] Substantial Battery (Felony)

Tomah Officers were dispatched to the 1000 block of Superior Ave. for a reported physical altercation. Additional information was that a male subject had been struck in the head with a cane. Officers spoke with the complainant and determined that he and another male subject got involved in a fight and the complainant struck the other male with a wooden cane causing this subject to bleed profusely from the head. The subject that was hit with the cane was located and taken to Tomah Memorial Hospital where he received six staples to close the wound. The complainant was referred for Substantial Battery (Felony) and the other male was arrested on a Probation violation and taken to jail.
